Gentlemen:

We are being very much annoyed by the vile smelling and very sooty smoke from your boiler on 155th Street. Not only is our place filled with obnoxious gases which cause discomfort to our employees but it is covered with a film of black greasy deposit.

You will either have to change your coal or in some other way remedy this nuisance; otherwise, we shall be obliged to take the matter up with the proper authorities.

Yours truly,

Curator

Gentlemen;

We have received your letter dated August 17th, in which you complain of annoyance caused by our boiler. We are sorry such is the case and we can assure you that we will do our best to remove this annoyance; and we might also mention that we intend to remove the boiler some time next week.

Thanking you for informing us first, and appreciating your kindness in not troubling us, we are,

Yours truly,
